Welcome to Rainbow Public School (RPS)

Education is the process of the gradual and systematic realisation of perfection. As Swami Vivekananda famously said, "education is the manifestation of perfection which is already present" in a child. We the teachers of Rainbow Public School are committed to this principle and hence our motto is 'I Can'.

We are committed to nurture the needs and feelings of every child. It is their growth that reflects our joy and satisfaction. Education for us is holistic – intellectual, emotional, physical, moral, active and spiritual. We therefore firmly believe that education is both diving inward and spreading outward, which helps the child to thrive successfully in life.

I am very much delighted to welcome our students and teachers back to this academic year.

RPS is growing at a tremendous pace. We are eagerly looking forward to the new students as well as new faculty who will be joining us shortly. Together we all will be enriching RPS with our achievements, experience and knowledge.

The School Elections

Elections Coming Soon !

Well, well ... Bear with us .... Though we concur with the fact that from past few months it has been raining elections and may be more coming, we got to participate with this one more at the RPS.

And as with everything else the Elections at RPS are also full of fun and learning.

The purpose of conducting elections at school level is to make students understand the power of individual and also the responsibility he/she has as a part of the society.

At student level we try to make understand that when elected, the person should be elected to basically take the lead in serving the society and not for any superficial enjoyment of power and things. Leaders for different houses along with the school leader & associates would be elected these elections.

Interesting Trivia

The Chausat(64) Yogini Temple, in Morena, Madhya Pradesh with central shrine holding Shivalinga is believed to be inspiration behind the design of Indian Parliament.

Built by Maharaja Devapala around 11th century. The temple was a venue for providing education in astrology and mathematics based on the transit of the Sun.

There are more such temples in India, unravelling the true stories is very interesting and is a part of studying history.

The Elephantine strength within.

A group of elephants near a forest camping area was halted by a small rope tied to their front leg. A man from town was watching this in amazement. He was amazed by the fact that the huge elephants are not even making an attempt to break the rope and set themselves free.

He enquired the trainer standing beside the elephants and expressed his astonishment. The trainer said "when they are very young and much smaller we use the same size rope to tie them and, at that age, it's enough to hold them. As they grow up, they are conditioned to believe that they cannot break away. They believe the rope can still hold them, so they never try to break free."

Why does it happen ?

It is the false belief of the elephants that denied their freedom for life time. Likewise, just because they failed once before, many people are not even trying to work towards success in their life. So keep on trying and don't get tied up with some false beliefs of failure. You have a huge energy to succeed. Past failures are only lessons and not permanent. Work hard with faith, success will come.

The Road to Success

“The Road to Success is always under Construction.” – Lily Tomlin

In the case of RPS , the road is literally under construction :) )

The road leading to RPS is under construction from few months and luckily is fast getting to be completed.

The RPS Team has learnt from various sources that by June the construction work will be completed from ring road to RPS cross and beyond.

With the wider and better road, RPS is 20 minutes from the Royal Mysuru Palace. Free flowing traffic in the bigger road does the trick. This is a big relief and boost to public in general and RPS-Students, Staff and the Parents.
